

Dear esteemed colleagues,

Thank you to those who have, via email, confirmed your participation at the TESOL France Annual Colloquium 2025. Conference registration will be open on Tuesday 22/7.

We understand that the deadline is tight but we ask that you register and pay online by Friday 25 July, 23:59 (midnight). This is the last step to confirming your place in the conference schedule.

You have 3 different processes to choose from:

1. If you are an active TESOL France member, you can register through your membership account.
2. If you want to become a member, you can register for the conference at the same time you become a member.
3. If you want to forgo membership, you can register for the conference as a non-member speaker.

1.) If you are an active TESOL France member, you can register through your membership account.

If you are an active TESOL France member, register for free through your member account. If you need to renew first, the system will prompt you for a renewal. Login

Login to your membership account here

if you have forgotten your old password, you can easily reset it by clicking here

here:

*If you have forgotten your password, please click on "recover password." You will be sent an email with a new password. Please use the SAME email that you have used in the past.

2.) If you want to become a member, you can register for the conference at the same time you become a member.

If you would like to become a member, you can sign up for membership and register for the colloquium at the same time.

Scroll down menu to membership platform

The image shows a screenshot of the TESOL France website. At the top, the navigation menu includes 'About us', 'Membership', 'Annual colloquium', 'Events', 'Media Gallery', 'The Teaching Times', 'E-Newsletter', and 'FAQs'. A magnifying glass is positioned over the 'Membership' menu item. A dropdown menu is open, showing options: 'Membership', 'Annual colloquium', 'Read more: Institutional members', 'Start your membership here', 'Read more: Individual members', and 'Frequently Asked Questions'. A yellow arrow points to the 'Start your membership here' link. Below the navigation, the page title is 'Membership (and Colloquium) Registration'. There are two main sections: 'ACTIVE or PAST members please use the login block' and 'NEW MEMBERS start registering now'. A 'Membership type' section has radio buttons for 'Individual membership' and 'Institutional membership'. On the right, there is an 'Annual colloquium' section with information about the conference and a link for 'Info and registration'.

3.) If you want to forgo membership, you can register for the conference as a non-member speaker.

If you are not interested in becoming a member, please register for the 2024 Colloquium as a speaker by scrolling down the page to :

The screenshot shows the registration page for the TESOL France Colloquium 2024. The page has a dark red header with navigation links: Home, About us, Membership, Annual colloquium, Events, Media Gallery, The Teaching Times, E-Newsletter, and FAQs. The main content area is titled "Register for the TESOL France Colloquium" and includes a "Members Access" sidebar on the left with a login form and a "Why join Tesol France?" section. The central text area contains "IMPORTANT REGISTRATION DEADLINE DETAILS" and a "Click here to register as a member AND for the Colloquium in the same process" link. A red circle highlights the text "You DO NOT WANT to be a member of Tesol-France? Please use the form below:". Below this is a registration form with fields for "First name", "Last name", "Postal address", "City", "Country", and "Telephone number". The form also includes checkboxes for "Are you a speaker at this event?" and "Are you a poster presenter at this event?". A large blue arrow points to the "Click here to register as a member" link, and a yellow circle with the text "Scroll Down" is overlaid on the page.
